

The Willis
Media Center

Greetings from the Willis Media Center! My name is Stephen Sajewski and I will be the Media Specialist at Willis for the 2015-2016 school year. I am truly excited about the instructional possibilities this school year. As the Media Specialist, I will not only be able to play a supportive role to the instruction that is delivered by our great educators, but I will also be leading fun, yet educational lessons that allow the students to interact with instructional technology.

Please make sure you visit and connect with the Willis Media Center webpage and social media outlets. These hubs of information will be valuable both to you and your child as most of the information I share with parents will come from these sources. You can visit our webpage and get connected by entering this URL:
